The Post currently supports a wide range of assistance programs created to meet the needs of veterans, their families, and the communities where they reside. The Post is involved with local schools through VFW sponsored programs including: the Voice of Democracy and Patriots Pen essay contests conducted at local Middle and High Schools, annual scholarship awards to veteran students at East Los Angeles College, Christmas stocking distributions to elementary school, and attendance at special school ceremonies. The post conducts the annual Memorial Day and Veterans Day observances at the All- Wars Memorial located at the crossroads between Boyle Heights and East Los Angeles, better known as "Cinco Puntos". Our motorcycle riders, honor guards and rifle teams participate in community sponsored ceremonies and accompany grieving families at grave site services for our fallen veterans. The Post has received a determination from IRS as a Non-Profit Organization under Section 501(c)(19) of the IRS Code (EIN 95-6095650).
